

NABA Members:

The Denver NABA held a manager meeting on January 27, 2009. One of the topics discussed was the Denver NABA creating their own umpires association. Overwhelmingly the league has decided to do so. The league is creating our own umpire association in 2009.

The Denver NABA would like to thank Aurora Sports Officials the assignor for the NABA for the last 7-8 years. Aurora Sports Officials (ASO) had provided great umpires and customer service over the years. ASO was a great business partner and the Denver NABA wishes them well.

At this time the Denver NABA would also like to thank Owner of ASO, Jerry Letofsy for all of his work and effort over the years to make NABA baseball the best league in town. The NABA hopes to continue a relationship with ASO so that both parties can continue to help one another in the years to come.

The league decided to make the switch so that they can bring in and train their own umpires and create a better league atmosphere. All umpires in the league will be wearing NABA hats and patches this year. Jeff Wood will be our assignor. Jeff has a relationship with the National Office of the NABA. He is the National assignor for all tournaments. We look forward to a great 2009 season.

Sincerely,

Joe Collins
Denver NABA
League President
